This position is filled by a registered nurse that has knowledge and experience in the care of persons with coagulation disorders. This role includes the delivery and coordination of patient care, education to patients, families and medical and community providers, research initiatives, and home infusion training. CVCCD has a nurse manager and a nurse coordinator providing these important tasks. The nurse manager also provides program management/administration for the Children with Special Health Care Needs Hemophilia Program through Virginia Department of Health.